

Abhinav Ramaria

Head – Programs & Operations, Aspirelabs Accelerator

Abhinav is responsible for Program Design and Operations for Aspirelabs Accelerator at Noida. He is focused on execution and adoption of accelerator and incubation best practices into Aspirelabs Acceleration programs. He is also responsible for outreach and partnerships. Under his leadership, Aspirelabs has been closely associated with Centre for Innovation Incubation and Entrepreneurship (CIIE), IIM Ahmedabad, Indian Institute of Technology- Delhi along with other quality partners in Indian Startup Ecosystem.

He has a rich corporate experience including leadership roles in the capacity of Project Manager at JSW Steels, Business Analyst cum Project Controller at Polyplex, Turkey and member core team for setting up Aspirelabs Accelerator. He has deep experience of Project Management, Business Process Excellence programs including that of working with top leaderships at the respective organizations.

Currently Abhinav is engaged in Startup eco-system as a Program Manager & Mentor to internal as well sustainability related Accelerator programs including FLCTD (Facility for Low Carbon Technology Deployment) by AIC Sangam, AIM Smart City Accelerator. At Aspirelabs, he is deep into Clean-tech Acceleration, Environmental sustainability and Reimagine Plastic (an initiative launched to catalyze circular economy models in Plastic Industry). Also he has been involved in assessment of early stage young startups including investment diligence of Startups in diverse fields like Sustainability, Legal services, Social and Rural Development sectors. He is B.Tech. from IIT Kanpur and has done Post Graduate Diploma in Management from IIM Lucknow.